THIRTY GRADUATES GET DIPLOMAS

Capacity Crowd Attends Finals of Alexandria High School

REP. MOORE SPEAKS

Speaker Lauds Public School System In Virginia—Tells Graduates to Have a Purpose in Life.

Representative R. Walton Moore of Fairfax county last night addressed the thirty members of the graduating class at the annual commencement exercises of the Alexandria High School held in the auditorium of that school.

The auditorium was packed to its capacity with relatives and friends of the graduates, officials of the city school board and others. The graduates occupied seats on the stage, the young women were attired in white and wore handsome boquets of flowers.

Those who graduated were:

Misses Leonie Simms, Ruth Ward, Ida Harvey, Marion Adams, Margaret Abramson, Elva Waters, Irene Manley, Almedia Park, Reba O'Neal, Margaret Linn, Rose Shapiro, Helen Barnhouse and Hilda Pulman and Messrs Charles Smith, Edgar Dare, Herbert O'Meara, Thomas Brooke Howard, Thomas Kelly, Leslie Deavers, Everett Pohl, George Smith, Purvis Downham, Alvin Friedlander, Hugh Marsh, Paul Speilman, Paul Barrett, William Blake, Edward Trumble, William Duvall, Elmer Davis.

The exercises were presided over by Capt. W. H. Sweeney, superintendent of schools and the diplomas of graduation were awarded by W. F. H. Finke president of the school board. Many of the graduates were the recipients of flowers and other presents.

Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, opened the exercises with invocation and during the evening selections were given by an orchestra. The assembly hall was decorated with orange and black, the schools colors.

Miss Irene Manley gave the salutatory and Edgar W. Dare was the valedictorian Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace P. E. Church, pronounced invocation. Supt. Sweeney made a short address on the unit system now in operation in the schools.

Representative Moore gave a very practical talk to the graduates. In spite of all of the horrors of the world war he said the opportunities today were as great as ever.

He then turned his attention to the steady growth of the public schools since the time of George Washington. Their success, however, he said did not become so pronounced until after the civil war. Since the civil war he said they have gone on with marked rapidty, growing better all the time.

Rapresentative Moore declared the teachers have got to be better paid, and he added they make great sacrifices.

The day is approaching asserted the speaker when in addition to physical training some military training will have to be added. Continuing he said: "I am not willing that this country fail to prepare to meet any contingency that may arise in the future.

The speaker said that this is the golden age for all who have ambition and he urged all of the graduates who can to attend some college or university, although he added that some of the most successful men in the country were men who never attended a university, but who were self educated men. He urged all to improve education by reading.

In conclusion the speaker requested all to have a purpose in life and above all to have character and he expressed the hope that they would do honor to themselves, and be a credit to their country, their state and their city.

HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL

"Alexed" is the name of the annual of the Alexandria High School published by the class of 1919 just from the press of Harry W. Wade. This annual is artistic and neatly gotten up. It is the first annual ever published by the school and certainly reflects credit on the editors and others who participated in its preparation.

The annual is well illstrated and contains many interesting suggestive of school news. Apart from the pages devoted to advertising the annual has 101 pages of reading matter and illustrations and is nicely bound.

TOURING CAR BURNS

Gasoline Tank Catches Fire—Car is Badly Damaged

The big Buick touring car belonging to D. G. McWhorter, of this city, was badly damaged, last night when it caught fire while the gasoline tank was being refilled, at the Chesapeake Garage in Baltimore, Md.

Mr. McWhorter has been hiring his car to parites for the past few weeks and had taken a party to Baltimore last evening. When ready to return home he drove into the garage to have the tank refilled. While the gasoline was being pumped into the tank, it suddenly burst into flames. The top and cushions of the car were badly scorched, although the engine was not injured.

TWO FIREMEN KILLED

Two Badly Injured as Fire Sweeps Tobacco Warehouse in Norfolk

Norfolk, Va., July 1.—Two firemen were killed and two others probably fatally injured and tobacco valued at a million dollars either damaged or destroyed yesterday when flames swept the entire fifth floor of the Imperial Tobacco Company's ware house here.

Hundreds of hogsheads of tobacco jammed together in the top of the burning building prevented the firemen reaching the blaze. Heat generated by the flames blew off the top of the blazing structure and badly crumbled the concrete floor.

After a desperate effort the firemen succeeded in confining the blaze to the upper stories. The firemen killed and injured were caught under a falling wall, all of them being badly crushed.

EX-KAISER MUST FACE TRIAL OR QUIT HOLLAND

Amsterdam, July 1.—The Paris correspondent of the Telegraaf today said that Holland, as a member of the league of nations, will be asked to inform the ex-Kaiser that he must appear for trial before an international court, or leave Dutch territory. The correspondent further said he understands the court will inflict either the death penalty or imprisonment.

DISCUSS STREETS IN ROSEMONT

Chamber of Commerce Also Elects Six New Members

R. L. PAYNE RESIGNS

J. T. Harrison Elected Director—Want Building Line in George Washington Park.

A called meeting of the board of directors of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, was held last night and the following were elected to membership, Sol Cohen, Del Ray; Charles Henry Smith, 123 South Royal Street; N. T. Foard, 517 King Street; C. L. Osborne, 631 King street Local Union No. 1665, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Jointers of America; the Washington Southern Railroad.

The housing proposition was generally discussed.

The resignation of R. L. Payne, as a director of the chamber, was accepted with regret, and John T. Harrison was unanimously elected a director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Payne.

The matter of condition and ownership of the streets at Rosemont, was generally discussed, and it is hoped and expected that some action will be taken by the City Council, at an early date to improve the conditions in that portion of the city.

Several parties it was stated are anxious to build homes in George Washington park, but have been unable, so far, to secure the proper lines, which can only be given them by the city. It is felt that at this time that all obstacles in the way of building homes should be promptly removed as far as possible.

The regular meetings of the board of directors were canceled during the months of July and August, and the board adjourned subject to the call of the president.

NEW MOTOR ENGINE

Will be Used by Reliance Fire Company

The new Motor fire engine for the Reliance Fire Engine Company arrived at the Potomac railroad yards early this morning. This engine will be unloaded and brought here tomorrow and taken to the Reliance Engine House. It will be given a test either tomorrow evening or Thursday.

The new engine was ordered by the city December 13, 1918, but owning to war conditions it was only recently shipped. The present engine, a horse drawn affair, will be held in reserve and at the company's house and the horses will be disposed of by the fire committee.

PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Howdershell Weds Mr. B. T. Hummer

Miss Lucile Howdershell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Howdershell, Lincolnia, Fairfax county, and Mr. Beverly Traylor Hummer, of Falls Church, were married at 10:30 o'clock Monday at the home of the bride's parents, Lincolnia.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, this city. The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns. Mrs. J. R. Howdershell played the wedding march. The bride was unattended and was gowned in a suit of field mouse gabardine and wore a picture hat of pale pink georgette trimmed with pink ostrich. Her corsage boquet was bride roses and sweet peas. The couple left for Niagara Falls where they will spend their honeymoon.

BACK TO TWO-CENT POSTAGE.

Rates Today go Back to the Pre-War Schedule

Remember, if you write a letter to anyone out of the city today you will not have to place a 3 cent stamp on it. For today the postage rates revert to prewar days, when a letter could be sent to any part of the United States, its possessions, or to Mexico and Canada for 2 cents. Foreign postage will be 5 cents, as of old.

Letters sent in the city will carry the same two-cent stamp as during war times. Postal cards will be sold for a cent and a one-cent stamp will carry picture postcards.

As there was no change in parcel post rates during the war they will remain the same and it still will be necessary to pay the war tax. Second class mail matter will go back to the old rate.

Persons who have a supply of three cent stamps on hand will not be able to have them redeemed. However, a three cent stamped envelope can be redeemed at its face value.

BANDITS KILL STOREKEEPER

John Deafs, a Greek, paid the price of courage with his life when he resisted negro bandits who entered his fruit store, 40 C street N. E., early his morning. A policeman, who was only a few blocks away when Deafs was slain and robbed, heard the shots fired by the bandits and arrived in time to see five or six men running from the store. They escaped him by fleeing through the grounds of the Capitol.

The men who shot Deafs to death entered his store as he was about to close for the night. It is his custom to go to his home, 114 C street northwest ,about 1 a. m., according to the police, and the shooting took place at 12:25.

It is thought that when the bandits demanded his money, Deafs fought them bare-handed. Three shots were fired at him—two taking effect in his head and the third lodging in his right shoulder.

CHAUTAUQUA HERE JULY 12 TO 18

Elaborate Program To Be Given By Noted Talent

DEMAND FOR TICKETS

All Should Attend This Affair—Rare Treat in Store For Those Who Witness Performances.

Music lovers, followers of literary entertainments and the general public at large is promised an unusual treat during the week of July 12 to 18 inclusive, when the Chautauqua Association of Pennsylvania pitches its big tents on the lot opposite the High School and begins the first entertainment of this nature to visit Alexandria in many years.

The program which has been prepared for the week beginning on Saturday evening, June 12, is one which cannot help bringing out music lovers by the score. The Chautauqua has shown in many of the the towns and cities of Virginia and has met with great response all over the circuit.

Ability is the chief characteristic of the artists who take part in the course of entertainments and some of the best known lecturers in the world will be identified with the Chatuaqua which comes here this month.

The sale of tickets for the tent has already begun and to date has been very successful. The big tent will seat hundreds of people, but all are warned to get their tickets early and avoid the jam which is occasioned by many persons who do not avail themselves of the season tickets.

Grand opera, popular music, orchestral selections and songs to mention the interesting and timely lectures which are interspersed throughout the course, will be features of the week, and every man, woman and child in Alexandria will find something of interest and will be benefitted by attending.

REAR END COLLISION

Eight Killed and 21 Injured as N. Y. entral Tfains Crash

Dunkirk, N. Y., July 1.—Eight persons were killed and twenty-one injured early today in a rear-end collision of two New York Central passenger trains at the Dunkirk station.

Train No. 41 had stopped just west of the Dunkirk station because of a hot box, No. 7, which does not stop at Dunkirk, plowed into the rear end of the stalled train. The two rear sleepers of No. 41, bound for Cincinnati and St. Louis, were telescoped, and most of the dead and injured were in these cars.

THE MORRIS CASE

Jury Called in for Night—Clergyman Fined by Judge

Charlottesville, Va., July 1.—After being out an hour and a half, the jury in the case of Edgar Morris, charged with the murder of Magistrate Bluford Sullivan during a court session at Standardsville, Va., failed to reach a verdict and was called in by the court at 9:30 o'clock last night and adjournment taken until 10 o'clock this morning.

Arguments in the case consumed five hours of heated discussion yesterday. While Attorney Hammer, counsel for the defense, was arraigning the dead magistrate, declaring "he feared neither man nor God," the Rev. R. W. Lewis, an Episcopal clergyman, in charge of the mission home near the scene of the tragedy in Greene county, shouted:

"You're a liar!"

The Rev. Mr. Lewis was called to the bar of the court and after apologizing for his remark at the request of the court, was fined $10.

LIGHT WINES AND BEER

Department of Justice Decides Such Beverages Will Not be Interfered With

Washington, July 1.—The Department of Justice is understood to have decided that the sale of light wines and beer shall not be interfered with under the war time prohibition law.

Instructions went forward yesterday to district attorneys in "wet" territory that the Department would abide by the recent decision in the test case brought in New York and would not prosecute dealers selling beverages containing not more than 2 3-4 per cent of alcohol.

In permitting saloons to remain open for the sale of 2 3-4 per cent beverages, the Department of Justice is understood not to forego the privilege of prosecution later, if its contention that 2 3-4 per cent beer is intoxicating is upheld. In short, the question merely is held in abeyance until a final decision is reached in the test cases. The Supreme Court cannot pass on the question before October.

Laws for enforcement of both war time and constitutional prohibition were favorably reported to the House late yesterday by the Judiciary Committee. They define as intoxicating any beverage containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol.

Consideration of the measure is not to begin until after the Independence Day holidays, but prohibition leaders expect them to go through without unusual delay and they say their enactment will serve to make illegal the sale of light wines and two and three-quarter cent beer, at least until the President declares demobilization completed.

CLERKS TO STAY ON JOBS

No Decrease in Payrolls Anticipated. Bureau Heads Declare

Lamentations over the report that several thousand government clerks would lose their positions today were met last night by Paul F. Myers, chief clerk of the Treasury Department, who declared that perhaps as many as 2,000 would be added to the rolls of that department within the next two months.

In each of the cases clerks were supposed to be dropped through lack of appropriations, bureau's officials denied that any of their clerks would be dismissed or even laid off. In some cases it was admitted that transfers would be necessary, but little inconvenience to the individual clerk is anticipated at present.

Myers said the increase will be principally in the Federal farm loan bureau, the auditor's department and the office of the commissioner of internal revenue. A slight increase is also expected in the bureau of War Risk Insurance. Many clerks dropped from other departments will be absorbed in this increase.

In a majority of bureaus, enough war workers are resigning to take care of the reductions.

SIGNS BILL IN MID-OCEAN

President, on Way Home, Establishes Another Precedent

Washington, July 1.—President Wilson signed the Railroad Appropriation bill, the Indian bill, some minor measures and other documents which needed signature to become law before July 1 in mid-ocean at 8 a. m., Greenwich time yesterday.

It was the first time that a chief executive of the United States had affixed his signature to appropriation bills at sea or indeed away from continental United States.

A pouch containing the bills was dispatched on the eastbound transport Great Northern from New York on June 24. This morning the Great Northern met the George Washington bearing the President homeward. The important papers were sent on the President's ship, signed and a wireless was sent to the White House announcing that the bills had become law.

Technically the President was on American territory when he signed the measures.

At her present rate of progress the George Washington will arrive at Hoboken at noon Monday next.

MARRIED

Mr. Benjamin Swann and Miss Louisa Magner were married last night at Christ Church by Rev. Mr. Morton. 156-1p.

HAPPENINGS ABOUT CITY TOLD IN BRIEF

The steamer E. Madison Hall, has discontinued her Saturdays trips owing the excursions running on that day.

Mr. S. D. Shelton having returned from France with the A. E. F., has recumed his duties as ticket agent, Union Station, this city.

Mrs. L. L. Armistead and little daughter, Margarete, who have been visiting relatives in St. Paul, and Milwaukee, have arrived home much benefited by their trip.

A number of Alexandrians who went to Baltimore to attend the funeral of John Barleycorn did not get home until today so great was the rush for trains.

Miss Louise Edna Magner and Benjamin F. Swann, both of this city, were married last night in Christ P. E. Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. W. J. Morton, rector.

L. K. Recker, son of Mrs. William Recker, 1126 Prince street, who for the past eleven months has been overseas as a member of the 81st division in France returned home Saturday.

R. M. Owens, who for the past two years has been overseas, has arrived safely and is now at Camp Merritt, N. J., according to word just received by Mrs. Kate Hammersley his foster mother.

Mr. Small, of the Telegraphers Union and two Congressmen from Virginia are expected to deliver addresses in the opera house tonight at the open meeting which will be held under the auspices of the Alexandria Trades Council.

According to reports many Alexandrians have stored away a supply of wet goods which will last for many months to come. Alexandrians during the past months have made frequent trips to to the Monumental city on "business." The "business" of most of those who made the trips, however, ceased at midnight last night.

[illegible] F. Price, City Auditor, [illegible]ed the duties of the office thirty[illegible]r years ago today, succeeding the late F. L. Brockett. His term of service has been longer than that of any city official. During all these years we can recall but three or four occasions when he had competitors. Alexandria has ever recognized capable public servants, and having absolute confidence in Mr. Price, the electorate have retained him in his position for over a third of a century even at times when the city was torn by political convulsions.

SLAYER TO PEN FOR LIFE

Ben Johnson, Colored, Who Killed W. E. Payne, Prohibition Inspector.

Benjamin F. Johnson, colored, sentenced to life imprisonment for shooting and killing William E. Payne, a State prohibition inspector, this afternoon was conveyed to the Richmond penitentiary by Guard Smith.

The shooting took place the night of February 21, 1919, at Rossyln, Alexandria county. Payne made an effort to arrest Johnson, who had a quantity of liquor which he had just purchased in Baltimore. In the encounter which followed Johnson pulled out his pistol and shot and killed Payne.

WITNESSES SON'S DEATH

Child's Head Almost Severed From Body by Vehicle's Wheels

Philadelphia, July 1.—Standing terrified on the sidewalk, Mrs. Mary Ducker, 314 South Third street, saw her three year old child, Harry, ground to death beneath the wheels of a southbound trolley car in front of his home Sunday night. The child's head was almst severed from his body.

The mother is in a hospital suffering from shock. She is also in a serious condition.

DAWNING OF THE "DRY ERA."

War-time prohibition went into effect last midnight and the nation is theoretically dry, but owing to uncertainty as to the status of beverages of a percentage of 2.75 or less of alcohol, saloons in wet territory are not forced to stop the sale of beer and light wines.

The Department of Justice takes the stand that since the matter is in the courts, Feedral officials will not make arrests at present but warning was sent out that manufacture and sale of such drinks was at the risk of future prosecution.

Railroad officials in Washington last night estimated that at least 30,000 persons visited Baltimore during yesterday.

Around Union Station and the terminal of the W. B. and A., during the period yesterday up to midnight, was exceedingly lively. Many Alexandrians helped to form the congestion.

Temperance movements and prohibition crusades date back at least 3,000 years! It was China that first tredd to be bone-dry.

Early reforms along temperance lines are attributed to the priests of India and Persia. But the Chinese claim that in the Eleventh century before Christ their emperor, so disgusted over the prevalence of drunkenness, ordered all the grape vines in the kingdom uprooted.

Mahomet interdicted the use of wine, and he also destroyed the vines.

The ancients began regulating the liquor traffic as far back as twenty-three centuries before the birth of Christ.

King Khammurabi found that drunkeness was getting so bad in Babylonia in 2250 B. C. that he enacted liquor regulators in the now celebrated Khammurabi code of Babylonian law.

Babloia was in the valley between the Tigris and Euphrates in Asia Minor. The king's code fixed a fair price for wine and provided death as a penalty for a tavern-keeper who permitted disorder.

Tavernkeepers were usually women in those days.

The Rechabites, mentioned in Jeremiah, 35th chapter, were teetotalers about five centuries before Christ.

GOODBY, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The tortures and discomforts of weak, lame and aching back, swollen feet and limbs, weakness, dizziness, nauses, as a rule have their origin in kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy.

Next time you feel a twinge of pain in the back or are troubled with headache, indigestion, insomnia, irritation in the bladder or pain in the loins and lower abdomen, you will find quick and sure relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This old and tried remedy for kidney trouble and allied derangements has stood the test for hundreds of years. It does the work. Pains and troubles vanish and new life and health will come as you continue their use. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day.

GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland. Do not accept a substitute. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

DEATHS FOLLOW ICE CREAM

Children the Victims and Chester Physicians Are Puzzled

Chester, Pa. July 1.—An epidemic of sore throats is giving Chester physicians no little trouble and death has resulted in several instances following the eating of ice cream. The latest victim was William, 13 year old son of Mrs. Harry Temple, of No. 117 Parker street. The boy died in intense agony at his home and his younger sister, Edith, died in a similar manner not long after eating ice cream. The little girl ate hers from a dish, while the boy had his from a cone. Both developed sore throats and the father of the children said he believed the trouble was with the way ice cream was kept in stores, rather than in the ingredients.

The boy's physicians said he died of blood poisoning in the throat, but do not atempt to give the cause. The epidemic shows an invarying set of symptoms and in each instance it is said that ice cream with or without cones has been a forerunner.

CRIES FOR VENGEANCE

Leading German Journals Declare Peace Treaty Mere Scrap of Paper.

Berlin, July 1.—The Pan-German Deutsche Zeitung prints the following across its front page:

"German honor today will be carried to its grave in the hall of mirrors in which, in the glorious year of 1871, the German empire was resurrected in all its former splendor. Lest we forget! In restless labor the German people will again strive to attain that place among the nations of the world to which it is entitled. Then vengeance for the disgrace of 1919!"

The Tageblatt says: "The German people reject the treaty which its delegates are signing today, and it does not believe for a single moment that it will endure. Despite the fact that it is written on parchment, it remains a scrap of paper, because it is a mockery of all the laws of reason and morals and the most disgraceful exhibit in the museum of civilization."

HANGS HIMSELF

Frank Minor, Baltimore, Finally Succeeds in Suicide Efforts

Baltimore, July 1.—After having been prevented several times from committing suicide, Frank Minor aged 62 took advantage of the absence of his wife and locked the door so she could not enter, went to the cellar of his home, 2044 East Eager street, and with his handkerchief and the clothesline hanged himself from a rafter.

According to his wife, Mrs. Agnes Minor, the man had been ill for some time.

AVERTS STRIKE CRISIS

Berlin, June 30.—The strike crisis in Berlin passed Sunday when the railroad men returned to work on the promise of the government to devote a billion and a half marks in the next three months toward lowering the cost of food

The government also promised better political conditions to the railroad workers.

It is believed the improved food situation will avert an internal crisis.

There were no evidences of excitement in Berlin over news that the peace treaty had been signed.

Independence Day in 1919

You may feel, as so many others do, that the Fourth of July in 1919 has, and should have, a new significance. The Fathers of this nation fought a strong enemy that they might gain political freedom for themselves and their children's children.

The Sons of the nation have just been fighting that they might give political freedom to others.

The one thing we ought to be proudest of, and celebrate most enthusiastically, is not so much the freedom they have won for us and others, as the fact that they were willing to fight for it.

And we ought to pause long enough from noise, and games and gaiety, to resolve with some solemnity, that nothing we can do shall be left undone, to keep and perpetuate what has been gained.

For the Convenience of Our Customers We Will Be Open 1-2 Day, July 4.

That's one of the uses of such a holiday; we're all going to quit business and make it a day

"Robin Hood"

Famous Opera

AT CHAUTAUQUA

MARGARET SMITH—"DAME DURDEN" IN "ROBIN HOOD"

Chautauquans will have no difficulty in recalling the musical headliners of past years on the Chautauqua programs. The light operas, "The Mikado," "The Chimes of Normandy," and "Pinafore" have set a high standard which some may think it will be difficult for his year's offering to equal and impossible to surpass. And yet the Chautauqua management without the least hesitation announces that Reginald DeKoven's opera "Robin Hood" is the greatest success which it has ever had the pleasure of offering for the approval of the towns on its circuits.

Not only was "Robin Hood" the first musical attempt at legitimate opera comique by American authors, but of all the light musical works born on this continent since its production twenty-six years ago, it is the one most worthy of revival. At Chautauqua this beautiful and tuneful opera will be produced by a full cast chorus and orchestra. This company will consist of thirty-five members, each an individual artist in his part and chosen because of his ability to interpret his special role.

The artistic effect will be greatly heightened by the special costuming and elaborate scenery which is carried to give the special setting necessary for this production.

One of the features of "Robin Hood" which never fails to delight the audiences is the unusual collection of well-known songs which are contained in the score. Some of the most popular hits, among which are no doubt some of your own personal favorites, are these:

Songs From "Robin Hood"

"Then Hey! For the Merry Greenwood."	"Ho! Ho! Then for Jollity."
"Brown October Ale."	"Ye Birds in Azure Winging."
"Come Dream So Bright."	"Armorer's Song."
"Tinkers' Chorus."	"A Hunting We Will Go."
"Oh, Promise Me."	"Ah! I Do Love Thee."
"Come Away to the Woods."	"Sweetheart, My Own."
	"Love, We Never More Will Part."

But tuneful music, elaborate costumes and scenery and popular song hits would not make "Robin Hood" a success if it were not for the fact that the Chautauqua management has secured a cast capable of making the most of their opportunities.

These well-known artists will play the leading roles in "Robin Hood": James Stevens, Walter C. Wilson, Margaret Smith, Joseph Florian, Edward Beck and Henry Taylor. All have had operatic experience in big operas in the large cities and will render their parts in a highly professional manner.

CHAUTAUQUA AND RECONSTRUCTION

The other day a small group of men of arairs attended a luncheon at the Union League to meet an American newspaper man who has lived abroad since 1900—until the outbreak of the war in Berlin and since then in London—and whose knowledge of big men and problems in Europe is broad and accurate.

He talked to these men of just such things as they wanted to know. He gave them clearer insight into some of the major issues upon which world peace and progress are predicated.

By summer's end this skilled observer will have given several hundred thousand men and women a chance to get first-hand information concerning the aims, needs and feelings of the people with whom, because of blood ties, we must co-operate most closely in the great task of setting to rights a war-wrecked world. He will carry on his service as an ambassador of better understanding in the simplest, most democratic fashion, speaking in tents to neighborng groups—"talking with" folk in a friendly way. He is on the Chautauqua circuit.

People generally know a good deal about Chautauqua and they've heard much of reconstruction. It is doubtful, however, whether the average person appreciates the close relationship between the two.

To do so one must get the right focus on this most American of our institutions—and today Chautauqua is an institution. Thousands of towns scattered thru every state look forward to its annual visit as the intellectual feast of the year. Last summer more than 7,000 000 people in this land bought season tickets. Half a million practical business men stood back of it as financial guarantors. Some twenty million men, women and children heard the programs.

These people form a nation wide league of neighbors. They go to the Chautauqua sessions to be entertained and enlightened. They gather well in advance of the opening hour and sit thru to the last word of the last number. They listen thoughtfully to the lectures and talk about them afterward. The local newspapers give full reports and thus carry the messages to those who could not attend or confirm the impression made on those who were on hand to hear.

They are the real, backbone folk of the nation—the everyday essence of true Americanism. Millions of them live on the farms that have made and are keeping us safe and sane in our sense of direction. When you reach them, you reach the richest soil of democracy.

This season the keynote of Chautauqua is reconstruction. During the war Chautauqua did excellent work in maintaining the national morale. It contributed largely to that "never-give-inspirit of do or die" which hastened the end of the struggle. It did this so well that President Wilson called it "an integral part of our national defense."

Now—but we might let the Chautauqua Association speak for itself:

The old world has been destroyed. Out of the fragments of the old the new must be built. The new architecture has not yet arrived.

Never in its history has the country had greater need to think clearly. The great national and international questions which are calling for solution can be solved correctly only by clear thinking on the part of every man. And Chautauqua is the people's university and the one free forum for discussion in America.

Its program is patriotic, but non-partisan; its teachings are always clearly moral, but never sectarian. Without regard to class, creed, party or social stratification, its gospel is always of genuine uplift and of broadening vision.

Without this free discussion democracy is impossible. Russia and Germany stifled free and open discussion. The one is in chaos, the other in the bitterness of defeat after an ill-advised attempt at world dominion. Chautauqua will help preserve our priceless democracy by the only sure way, a free and frank discussion of the country's problems.

Thus Chautauqua, always and forever important, is this year more vital to the community than ever before. It will create that community interest that banishes individual selfishness. It will bring together all the people of the town to consider with the nation's keenest minds the world's biggest problems. It will be a steadying force for the right kind of progress in this reconstruction period.

A purpose thus based is bound to be helpful, not only to the communities which share the programs, but to the country as a whole. City folk, who have countless opportunities for hearing the best of current thought and music, cannot adequately appreciate what it means to a small town to have a week of such lectures and music as Chautauqua provides. Indeed, we wish every city-bred person might have an opportunity to see for himself how this thing works out. It would be inspiring as well as instructive.

Take, for example, a typical 1919 week, such as now is going on in a number of towns in this part of the land under the direction of the Chautauqua organization, started a few years ago by a group of forward looking men in Swarthmore, and now at the head of the procession

The Overseas Quartette

AT CHAUTAUQUA

Service Men In Musical Treat

Few people realize the part that music has had in the winning of the war. That never-give-in spirit called morale is largely a product of the cheerfulness due to the songs of the men on the march and in camp. And we have all heard these songs sung—but most of us only at second-hand.

The "Overseas Quartette," composed of four young men from the A. E. F., will render a program at Chautauqua that will completely satisfy the longing of the home folks to hear at firsthand the songs of the boys in khaki.

These Yankee soldiers bring us the great world war in music. And the songs they will sing will show us that not all of the war was tragedy. Much of it was fun and good fellowship and so in their program these soldier lads will show us the combination of fun, thrills and tragedy which is modern war. They will portray in song and pantomime the many sides of the life that has made men out of weaklings and heroes out of cowards.

Besides the quartette numbers there are excellent solos and duets. Each member of the company is capable of sustaining his own part in solo work most creditably and these numbers will be one of the very enjoyable features of the program. Their songs cover a wide variety and besides the songs of trench and camp, their selections will also be on the eternally interesting themes of love and peace.

The Chautauqua management presents this company with great confidence because each of the members of the company has had extensive experience in platform work before entering the service and there would be no doubt of the success of the attraction as an ordinary civilian quartette. With their unique experience as a background and the timely songs of trench and camp as the main part of their program, this quartette is bound to be one of the features of the Chautauqua Week in your town.

THEATRES

Richmond—George Walsh

William Fox's breezy and versatile star, George Walsh, is to be the attraction at the Richmond Theatre today when he will appear in a thrilling mystery comedy called "Putting One Over." Some Walsh feats of extraordinary daring are promised; but primarily the story is said to be an admirable one, replete with humor and with tense dramatic situations and complications which apparently defy solution.

INGOMAR THEATRE

David W. Griffith's remarkable war picture, which is being shown at at the Ingomar Theatre today, is a wonderful photoplay, both in the high quality of the acting and the superior direction and photoplay it evidences. Dainty Lillian Gish and Robert Harron have the leading roles and the support is in every way excellent.

HOW WOULD YOU HAVE PUNISHED THIS IMPOSTER?

If you have sworn never again to have anything to do with womankind, because your wife had deserted you, taking your little child; and a girl of twelve had won your sympathy and stirred your affections; and, then you learned she was a young woman of eighteen who was masquerading on a wager she could win her way to your heart, and you knew that in do doing she had lost her heart entirely to you—what punishment would you inflict on her?

Betty, in "The Beloved Imposter."

the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature, which will be seen in the Grand Theatre tonight, is the girl and her punishment is portrayed with dramatic skill in the final scents in the picture. Also a comedy will be shown.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.

New Summer Hats of Moire Silk and Satin

The Fabric Hat is strongly rivaling that of straw.

These latest arrivals of moire and satin are in navy blue, white, and black, and are in large shapes chiefly, with a few in the small close style.

They are all self-trimmed and very attractive styles that will be becoming to almost any woman. The navy blue Hats, especially, look well on the majority of women; and white, navy or black can be worn with almost any colored costume.
